

Hokah is located in Houston County in southeastern Minnesota. It is a place of unique, friendly people of all ages and generations. Most have nicknames, belong to a church, belong to the American Legion, or the Lion's Club, are a first responder or a firefighter, and believe in Hokah. Many can cook or grow something special. Chicken Que's and Hog Roasts are at the top of the list. Vineyards and wineries are popping up amidst the rolling crop lands. Farmers come to town with ease in their work clothes. Main Street offers a place to buy treasures, have a beer, say a prayer, get your hair cut, gas up or repair your vehicle, eat some home-cooked food specials, and mail a postcard.

Hokah is defined by Thompson Creek and the Root River. A little city rich in History, it is named after Chief Wecheshatope Hokah. The best scenery in the area can be found in and around Hokah with ever changing color on its bluffs and sloping valleys. Inside of Hokah are it's best treasures, Como Falls and Mount Tom. Mt. Tom overlooks the city and Como Falls creates a beautiful setting for weddings, celebrations and pictures. This area is close to the Hokah Fire Department's community room.

Just a stroll or short drive is the swimming pool/beach and fishing ponds. The pool/beach is zero entry with a sand bottom, 2 one meter boards, large sand toys, ample seating and a new jungle gym. Hokah's pool is on a list of the 9 most unique pools in Minnesota.

A trail from the falls and pool area leads you south past the Legion Ball Field with concession stand and shelter, to Twin Creeks Golf. It is also accessible off Hwy. 44. The perfect family park place, Twin Creeks provides disc golf, driving range, miniature golf, volley ball, children's play equipment and even fenced in deer to enjoy!

Pay a visit to Hokah and shake a hand, make a new friend and hear some stories of the past. You could hear about the railroad, the lake, the mills, and the booming town or about a future happening like an upcoming poker run, ball tournament, chili cook off or the Hokah Fire Department Fall Fest.

Veteran's Park, located in the residential area, has two shelters, a small ball field and a horseshoe court. The Park offers a quiet place to rest, picnic and kids can play on the swings and slides. In the winter the ball field is flooded for your skating enjoyment.

Hokah's Library is located in the City Auditorium building. The 1938 building is in the Art Deco style and is listed on the National Register of Historic places. It houses the Hokah Heritage room which has resources on local history and genealogy. The Library provides programming for all ages, storytime and snowshoe rental.

If you come into Hokah from the north, at the Root River you will find a green space, table and canoe landing, and places to fish. Down Hwy. 16 just a bit is a creek side rest area. On Mondays, you will find the Root River Junction Farmers Market in the months of May - October. Located at six of the places mentioned, are interpretive signs detailing Historic pictures of Hokah.
